ARTICLE I

NAME AND PURPOSE

Section 1. Name. The name of this corporation shall be the Montana Dental Hygienists’ Association (hereinafter referred to as the “Association” or “MDHA”), a Montana not-for-profit corporation.

Section 2. Purpose/Mission. In addition to the purposes set forth in the Association’s Articles of Incorporation, as may be amended, the purposes of the Association are to support the mission of the Montana Dental Hygienists’ Association. The mission is to advance the art and science of dental hygiene by improving the public’s total health through: ensuring access to quality oral health care, awareness of cost effective benefits of prevention, promotion of the highest standards of dental hygiene education, licensure, practice and research; and provide representation, promotion, and preservation of the interests of dental hygienists; and to conduct other activities as may be permitted by the State of Montana to carry out the purposes of this association.

Section 3. Offices. The Association shall have and continuously maintain in the State of Montana a registered office and a registered agent whose office is identical with that registered office and may have such other offices, within or without the State of Montana, as the Board of Trustees may determine.

ARTICLE II

MEMBERSHIP

Section 1. Membership Qualifications. Membership may be granted to any individual who: (i) meets the criteria set forth for each category of membership in the Association; (ii) shares interest in and supports the purposes of the Association; (iii) abides by these Bylaws, the Association’s Code of Ethics for Dental Hygienists, and such other policies, rules, and regulations as the Association may adopt; and (iv) meets such additional criteria for each category of membership in the Association as the Board of Trustees may establish.

Section 2. Membership Categories. The membership of the Association shall be composed of the following categories:

a. Voting Members

1. Professional Members. Professional membership may be granted to any individual who (i) has either earned a certificate or professional degree in dental hygiene granted pursuant to a dental hygiene program offered by an accredited college or institution of higher education, or is licensed to practice dental hygiene in the United States under the provision of a “grandfather clause”; and (ii) is licensed to practice in any state, territory or possession of the United States if such license is required for the practice of dental hygiene; and (iii) agrees to maintain membership in a Constituent as well as a Component (if such exist where the member is licensed, practices or resides).
2. Senior Status. Active members who have reached the full retirement age as set by the Social Security Administration and have either been an Active member of the Association for an aggregate total of thirty (30) years, or twenty-five (25) consecutive years may apply for Senior status.

3. Members with Disabilities. Active members who are unable to work due to a verified disability may apply for Disabled status. All such applications must be verified by such member’s Constituent and/or Component, and must be accompanied by proof of eligibility each year.

4. Life Members. Life membership may be granted by the Board of Trustees to any active member who (i) has made significant contributions to the Association and the dental hygiene profession; (ii) submitted an application for Life membership to the Board of Trustees at least 30 days prior to the fall Board of Trustees meeting; (iii) is nominated by the Board of Trustees; and (iv) meets such other criteria as determined by the Board of Trustees from time to time.

b. Non-voting Members

1. International Members. International membership may be granted to any individual who (i) resides outside of the United States; and (ii) holds a valid license to practice as a dental hygienist.

2. Student Members. Student membership may be granted to any student (i) currently enrolled in an accredited dental hygiene program; or (ii) who has graduated from an accredited dental hygiene program and is currently pursuing a baccalaureate or graduate degree complementary to a career in dental hygiene in an accredited college or institution of higher education.

3. Supporting Members. Supporting membership may be granted to any licensed dental hygienist who (i) is not employed in a dental hygiene-related career; and (ii) agrees to maintain membership in a Constituent as well as a Component (if such exist where the member is licensed or resides).

4. Honorary Members. Honorary membership may be granted by the House of Delegates to any individual who (i) is not a dental hygienist; (ii) has made outstanding contributions to dental hygiene or dental health; and (iii) has been nominated by the Board of Trustees.

5. Allied Members. Allied membership may be granted to any individual who supports the purposes and mission of the Association and who is not otherwise qualified for any other class of membership.

6. Corporate Members. Corporate membership may be granted to any corporation, partnership, institution or organization that supports the Association’s mission.
Section 3. Rights and Duties.

a. Voting and supporting members must be members of both a Constituent and Component (if such exist where the member is licensed, practices or resides).

b. All members shall be entitled to attend the member meetings and social functions of the Association.

c. Only Voting Members may vote for the election of officers, hold office in the Association, its constituents and components and serve on the Board of Trustees.

Section 4. Disciplinary Action/Termination of Membership.

a. Grounds for Discipline. Membership in the Association may be suspended or terminated by the Board of Trustees for cause. Sufficient cause of such action may be a violation of these Bylaws, the Principles of Ethics of ADHA, any lawful rule of practice, or any conduct deemed to be prejudicial to the best interest of the Association.

b. Procedures. Discipline may include, but not be limited to, censure, suspension, probation, and expulsion. Disciplinary action may be taken provided that a statement of the charges shall have been sent by certified mail to the last recorded address of the member at least fifteen (15) days before final action is to be taken. This statement shall be accompanied by a notice of the time and place of the meeting at which the charges shall be considered, and the member shall have the opportunity to appear in person and/or to be represented by counsel and to present any defense to such charges before action is taken by the Association. Such disciplinary actions shall be conducted in accordance with procedures established by the Board of Trustees.

c. Non-Payment of Dues. The membership of any member who is in default of payment of dues or assessments for more than three (3) months, ceases to be a member of the Constituent, Component, or other organization required for membership in the Association, or otherwise becomes ineligible for membership, shall be terminated automatically, according to such rules or procedures as the Board of Trustees or their designee(s) shall establish, unless such termination is delayed by the Board of Trustees.

d. Resignation. A member desiring to resign from the Association shall submit such resignation in writing to the Association President.

Section 5. Reinstatement. Members who have resigned or whose membership has been terminated for non-payment of dues or assessments may be reinstated upon (i) payment of dues and any assessments; (ii) application to the appropriate Constituent or to the Board of Trustees; and (iii) meeting such additional terms and conditions as may be established by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE III

DUES AND ASSESSMENTS
Section 1. Dues. Dues shall be determined by a majority of the present voting members of the Association at a regular session. Life and Honorary members shall be exempt from the payment of Association dues. Active members who have been granted Senior status by the ADHA are eligible for a reduction in dues to the percentage determined by ADHA.

Section 2. Assessments. The time for paying such dues and other assessments, if any, shall be determined by the Board of Trustees. Under special circumstances, the Board of Trustees, or its designee(s), may waive or reduce the annual dues and/or assessments for any member.

ARTICLE IV

MEMBERSHIP MEETINGS

Section 1. Annual Meeting. An annual meeting of the voting members of the Association shall be held at such time and place as shall be determined by the Board of Trustees.

Section 2. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the voting members of the Association may be called at the request of the Board of Trustees, or at the written request of two-thirds (2/3) of the Association’s voting members. The time and place for holding special meetings shall be determined by the Board of Trustees.

Section 3. Notice. Notice of any annual or special meeting of the voting members shall state the time, date, place and purpose of the meeting and shall be delivered no less than ten days in advance.

Section 4. Quorum. Twenty percent (20%) of the voting members of the Association shall constitute a quorum for a regular meeting of the membership.

Section 5. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority or more of the voting members present at a duly called meeting at which a quorum is present shall be the act of the members, unless the act of a greater number is required by law, the Articles of Incorporation, or these Bylaws.

Section 6. Mail Vote. Voting by mail or electronic means shall be permitted to the full extent allowed by the Montana Annotated Code 35-2-427, as may be amended. A mail or electronic vote may be called by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE V

BOARD OF TRUSTEES

Section 1. Authority and Responsibility. The affairs of the Association shall be managed by the Board of Trustees, which shall have supervision, control and direction of the Association, shall determine its business policies or changes therein within the limits of these Bylaws, shall actively promote its purposes, and shall have discretion in the disbursement of its funds. The Board of Trustees shall act for and on behalf of the Association, in the execution of the powers granted, appoint such agents as it may consider necessary. The Board of Trustees shall provide reports to the Association membership.

Section 2. Composition. The Board of Trustees shall be composed of members as follows: the President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, Immediate Past President, component trustee(s), ADHA Delegate(s), ADHA Alternate Delegate(s), and standing committee chairpersons. In the absence of an organized component, the president may, with input from local MDHA members, appoint a trustee to fill a vacancy.
Section 3. Qualifications. Only voting members shall be eligible to serve on the Board of Trustees. Component Trustees must be members of the Component they have been elected to represent.

Section 4. Regular Meetings. The Board of Trustees may take action to set the time, date, and place for the holding of a regular annual meeting of the Board of Trustees and additional regular meetings of the Board of Trustees without other notice than such action.

Section 5. Special Meetings. Special meetings of the Board of Trustees may be called by, or at the request of the President or five (5) members of the Board of Trustees. Notice of any special meeting of the Board of Trustees shall state the time, date, and place of the meeting and shall be delivered at least five (5) days prior to the date of such meeting. Attendance of a Trustee at any meeting shall constitute a waiver of notice of such meeting except where a Trustee attends a meeting for the express purpose of objecting to the transaction of any business because the meeting is not lawfully called and convened.

Section 6. Meeting by Conference Call. Any action to be taken at a meeting of the Board of Trustees or any committee thereof may be taken through the use of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other. Notice of any meeting to be held by conference call must be delivered a minimum of forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting.

Section 7. Quorum. A majority of the Board of Trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at any duly called meeting of the Board of Trustees.

Section 8. Manner of Acting. The act of a majority of Trustees present at a duly called meeting shall be the act of the Board of Trustees.

Section 9. Action by Written Consent. Any action requiring a vote of the Board of Trustees may be taken without a meeting if consent in writing, setting forth the action taken, is signed by all of the members of the Board of Trustees entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof.

Section 10. Resignation and Removal. Any Board of Trustee member may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. In addition, any member may be removed by a majority vote of the persons entitled to elect such Trustee, whenever, in their judgment, the best interests of the Association would be served by such removal.

Section 11. Duties. The Board of Trustees shall be responsible for the following duties:

a. To be responsible for all assets held by the Association.
b. To establish the fiscal year of the Association.
c. To ensure the audit of accounts of the Association annually.
d. To submit to the general assembly of the membership a budget of the Association for the next fiscal year.
e. To submit an annual report of the Board of Trustees to the general assembly each year.
f. Review of all committee reports and correspondence.
g. To appoint such agents, attorneys and others it deems necessary.
h. To perform such other duties as are prescribed or permitted by the State of Montana and Federal Law, the membership of the Association, or otherwise outlined in these Bylaws.
ARTICLE VI

OFFICERS

Section 1. Officers. The officers of the Association shall be a President, President-Elect, Secretary, Treasurer, and Immediate Past President (collectively, "Officers"). No two (2) offices may be held simultaneously by the same person.

Section 2. President. The President shall be the principal elected officer of the Association and shall, in general, supervise all of the business affairs of the Association, subject to the direction and control of the Board of Trustees, by communicating with the Board of Trustees as necessary regarding the business of the Association. The President shall be a member, without vote, of all councils and committees, except as otherwise provided by these Bylaws. The President shall, in general, perform all duties customarily incident to the office of President and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees. The President shall succeed to the office of Immediate Past President upon expiration of the President’s term of office.

Section 3. President-Elect. The President-Elect shall assist the President and shall substitute for the President when required. The President-Elect shall be a member, without vote, of all councils and committees, except as otherwise provided by these Bylaws. The President-Elect shall, in general, perform all duties customarily incident to the office of President-Elect and such other duties as may be prescribed by the Board of Trustees. The President-Elect shall succeed to the office of President upon expiration of the President’s term of office, and in the event of the death, resignation, removal, or incapacity of the President.

Section 4. Secretary. The Secretary shall be the recording officer of the Association and have such duties as may be assigned by the President or the Board of Trustees.

Section 5. Treasurer. The Treasurer shall be the principal financial officer of the Association and shall have charge of and be responsible for the maintenance of adequate books of account for the Association; shall have charge and custody of all funds and securities of the Association, and be responsible therefore, and for the receipt and disbursement thereof; shall deposit all funds and securities of the Association in such banks, trust companies or other depositories as shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of these Bylaws. The duties of the Treasurer may be assigned by the Board of Trustees.

Section 6. Immediate Past President. The Immediate Past President shall have such duties as may be assigned by the President or the Board of Trustees.

Section 7. Qualifications for Office. Only voting members are eligible to hold office.

Section 8. Term.

a. The President, President-Elect, Secretary and Immediate Past President shall serve a one (1) year term in office, or until such time as their successors are duly elected, qualified, and take office.

b. The Treasurer shall serve a two (2) year term in office, or until such time as their successors are duly elected, qualified, and take office.

c. Officers serving more than half of a full term shall be deemed to have served a full term in office.
Section 9. Election.

a. The President-Elect and Secretary shall be elected annually by the voting members of the Association in the regular order of business.

b. The Treasurer shall be elected by the membership at the annual session every two (2) years at which the election of Officers in the regular order of business.

c. In the event that no candidate receives a majority of the votes cast, the vote shall be conducted again with only the two candidates receiving the highest number of votes eligible for election.

d. Officers shall take office on the date of the first regular meeting of the Board of Trustees following the close of the annual session at which they are elected.

Section 10. Resignation and Removal of Officers. Any officer may resign at any time by giving written notice to the President. In addition, any officer may be removed by a majority vote of the persons entitled to elect such officer, whenever, in their judgment, the best interests of the Association would be served by such removal.

Section 11. Officer Vacancies. Vacancies in any office shall be filled by the President after the advisement of the Board of Trustees without undue delay, provided, however, the President-Elect automatically shall succeed to the office of President in the event of the death, resignation, removal, or incapacity of the President and the office of President-Elect shall remain vacant until the next meeting of the membership. In the event the President-Elect position is vacant at such time as there becomes a vacancy in the office of President, the Board of Trustees immediately shall fill the office of President and such appointee shall hold office until the next meeting of the membership. Except as otherwise set forth herein, an officer appointed pursuant to this Section shall hold such office for the remainder of the original term for which she or he was appointed to fill.

ARTICLE VII

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT

The administrative and day-to-day operation of the Association, and such duties as the Board may assign, shall be the responsibility of the Administrative Assistant, a salaried employee responsible to the Board of Trustees. The Administrative Assistant shall be expected to attend and participate in all meetings of the Association’s Board of Trustees and will have the right to vote, provided the Administrative Assistant is a voting member of the Association.

ARTICLE VIII

COMMITTEES/COUNCILS/TASK FORCES

The Board shall delegate duties within the Board of Trustees to committees. The responsibilities of these Committees shall be defined by the Board of Trustees.

Section 1. Executive Committee. This shall consist of the President, Immediate Past-President, President-Elect, Secretary and Treasurer.

Section 2. MDHA-MDA Liaison Committee. This shall consist of the President, Immediate Past-President, and the President-Elect.
Section 3. Bylaws, Policy and Procedures Review Committee. This shall consist of the President, Immediate Past-President, and the President-Elect.

Section 4. Finance Committee. This shall consist of the President, President-Elect, Past-President and the Treasurer.

Section 5. Audit Committee. This shall be a committee of any three members of the Board of Trustees, with the exception of the Treasurer. The Chairperson will be appointed by the President, and the Chairperson will select the other two members.

Section 6. Nominations Committee. The Immediate Past-President shall act as chairperson and shall include additional appointed members of the Board of Trustees.

Section 7. Standing Committees. The Association shall have the following standing committees, whose Chairpersons shall be appointed from the membership by the President for a one year term. Standing committee activities shall be directed by the Board of Trustees. The Chairpersons shall serve a term of one year and become voting members of the Board of Trustees upon appointment.

- Membership
- Legislative
- Board of Dentistry Liaison

- Limited Access Permit Liaison

Section 7. Committee Vacancies. Except as otherwise provided herein, vacancies in the membership of a council or committee shall be filled by the President.

Section 8. Policies and Procedures. The Board of Trustees shall develop and approve policies and procedures for the operation of all councils and standing committees. All councils and standing committees shall report to the Board of Trustees, unless otherwise set forth in the resolution establishing such council/committee.

Section 9. Advisory/Ad Hoc Committees and Task Forces. The Board of Trustees may appoint such advisory or ad hoc committees or task forces as are necessary or appropriate in the exercise of their authority and responsibility as set forth in these Bylaws.

a. Committee/Task Force Vacancies. Except as otherwise provided herein, vacancies in the membership of a committee or task force shall be filled by appointments made in the same manner as the original appointments to that committee/task force.

b. Policies and Procedures. The Board of Trustees shall develop and approve general policies and procedures for the operating of all committees and task forces. All committees and task forces shall report to the entity creating the committee/task force.
ARTICLE IX COMPONENTS

Section 1. Tripartite. The American Dental Hygienists’ Association (ADHA) is a tripartite organization. Voting and Supporting members must maintain an active membership in ADHA, a Constituent and a Component (if such exist where the member is licensed, practices or resides).

a. Components. Voting members of the Association who are licensed, practicing or residing within a particular state, commonwealth, federal district, territory or possession of the United States may be organized as a component of the Association (each of which is referred to as a "Component"). The Board of Trustees may authorize the establishment of Components which shall (i) be organized and operated in accordance with these Bylaws, and such additional rules and policies as may be adopted by the Board of Trustees from time to time; (ii) fulfill criteria for affiliation as may be established by the Board of Trustees from time to time; (iii) enter into Component agreements with the Association; and (iv) be issued a charter. The name, geographic boundaries and other requirements for components shall be subject to approval of the ADHA and such rules and policies as may be adopted by the ADHA and the Constituent Board from time to time.

b. Application for Recognition as a Component. The Board of Trustees, or its designee(s), shall adopt an application form and procedures to facilitate the consideration of applicants seeking to be organized as a Component of the Association. All applicants must complete the application form and submit the application, along with the designated fee, if any, to the administrative office of the Association. The Board of Trustees, or its designee(s), shall review the application of all applicants and determine, based on the criteria set forth in these Bylaws and such other guidelines as the Board of Trustees may prescribe, if applicants meet the qualifications necessary for recognition as a Component.

c. Revocation. Charters for the operation of Components may be revoked by the Board of Trustees at any time and in such manner and after such investigation as the Board of Trustees may deem necessary. Upon revocation of a Component’s charter, the Component immediately shall remit all of its funds and records to the Association’s Board of Trustees.

1. Due notice shall be given by the President to the Component in question, by registered mail and reasonable opportunity shall be allowed for the component to meet the requirements or correct infractions before final action is taken to revoke the charter.

d. Name. No Component or other entity shall use the name of the ADHA or the Association in any manner whatsoever unless duly authorized to do so by ADHA or the Association (as applicable) pursuant to the terms of a written agreement.

e. Organization. Each Component shall have a Board of Directors, officers and bylaws in such form as shall be approved by the Association’s Board of Trustees. Components must maintain voting membership categories and criteria that are identical to the Association’s (with the exception of Life membership). Changes to a Component’s bylaws must receive the written approval of the Association’s Board of Trustees.
f. Meetings. Each Component may hold such meetings as it deems appropriate.

g. Choice of Component. Members may belong to only one Component, and may join the Component of their choice based on where they reside, practice or hold a license.

h. Transfers. A member of a Component may transfer to another Component by written request addressed to the central office of ADHA. The central office of ADHA shall affect the transfer and promptly shall notify the effected Components. Full membership privileges shall be granted to the transferring member in the new Component, and the new Component shall give the transferring member a credit for the full amount of any dues paid to the previous Component to be applied towards dues in the new Component.

ARTICLE X

ELECTRONIC MEETINGS

Any action to be taken at a Board of Trustees, voting member, council, committee, or task force meeting may be taken through the use of a conference telephone or other communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can communicate with each other simultaneously. Participation in such a meeting shall constitute presence in person at the meeting of the persons so participating. Notwithstanding anything set forth to the contrary in these Bylaws, notice of an electronic meeting must be delivered at least forty-eight (48) hours prior to the meeting.

ARTICLE XI

USE OF ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION

Unless otherwise prohibited by law, (i) any action to be taken or notice delivered under these Bylaws may be taken or transmitted by electronic mail or other electronic means; and (ii) any action or approval required to be written or in writing may be transmitted or received by electronic mail or other electronic means.

ARTICLE XII

INDEMNIFICATION

The Association shall indemnify all past and present officers, directors, employees, committee, council, and task force members, and all other volunteers of the Association to the full extent permitted by the Montana Code Annotated 35-2-447, as may be amended, and shall be entitled to purchase insurance for such indemnification of officers and directors to the full extent as determined by the Board of Trustees.

ARTICLE XIII

AMENDMENTS

Section 1. Proposed Amendments. The Board of Trustees or any voting member of the Association may propose amendments, in whole or in part, to these Bylaws. Amendments and revisions of these Bylaws must have a two-thirds (2/3) affirmation by the membership at the duly called annual assembly.
Section 2. Notice. Notice of intent to amend these Bylaws must be (i) sent to all voting members by mail or electronic communication or (ii) published in print or online and circulated to the entire membership; or (iii) published on the Association's website at least fifteen (15) days prior to the Annual session of the Association at which such amendments are to be considered. Such notice must include a general description of the proposed amendments.

ARTICLE XIV
DISSOLUTION

In the event of the dissolution of the Association, the Board of Trustees shall, after paying or making provision for the payment of all of the liabilities of the Association, distribute all of the remaining assets of the Association to the ADHA, or, if the ADHA is no longer in existence, exclusively for the purposes of the Association in such manner, or to such organization or organizations as shall at the time qualify as a tax-exempt organization or organizations recognized under Sections 501(c)(3) or 501(c)(6) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended (the “Code”) or the corresponding provisions of any future United States Internal Revenue statute, as the Board of Trustees shall determine. Any such assets not so disposed of shall be disposed of by the court of general jurisdiction of the county in which the principal office of the Association is then located.

ARTICLE XV
PARLIAMENTARY AUTHORITY

The rules contained in the current edition of Robert’s Rules of Order Newly Revised, shall govern all meetings of the Association in all cases to which they are applicable and in which they are not inconsistent with the Montana Act, these bylaws and any special rules of order the Association may adopt.

ARTICLE XVI
SUPREMACY CLAUSE

The Constitution and Bylaws of this Association shall not be in conflict with the Constitution and Bylaws of ADHA, which shall be the supreme law of the Association. A current copy of these Bylaws shall be on file with the Executive Director of ADHA.
